

I love my independent ISP! When I call them on the phone a human answers! A knowledgeable one at that! It would be a travesty to allow the big phone companies to dominate the internet service provides. Regulating the big telecommunications to keep small providers viable is what the FCC is for! Don't let the big companies take over. Protect small businesses!